HOMECOMING

Homecoming festivities began on Spirit Night with the announcing of the Queen. The four senior attendants, Donna Kirchner, Pam Barnes, Chris Grever and Mary Pollock were elected by the senior class. The other attendants were Ruth CizMadia, junior, Cindi Grever, sophomore and Pam Sturm, freshman.

This year's homecoming night, October 24, held some original entertainment. Freshmen decorated the field with balloons, while seniors dressed as Disney World characters added even more color. During the pre-game procession, the homecoming attendants were driven around the field in horse-drawn buggies and then escorted by their fathers to the accompanying music of the Highland Marching Band.

Queen Mary was given her bouquet of flowers by Monya Mann, while Michael Toth carried the crown of daisies. Football captains Roger Chaffee, and Bob Jones presented the Queen with kisses, the football and her crown.

The exciting homecoming game ended the evening with a 52-18 victory for Highland over Keystone.

The Homecoming Dance on Saturday, October 25th was enjoyed by many couples. The Juniors decorated the gym to the theme of "Disneyworld". Murals from fairy tales were hung on the walls, and large playing cards were stacked on the stage. Couples talked at candlelit tables or danced to the music of "Canterbury".

The Queen and her court were escorted onto the stage for the crowning. Queen Mary was presented her bouquet of roses by Jim Kendel and her crown by Jim Ritcher. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria which was decorated by sophomores with scenes from Snow White and Bambi.

FOOTBALL

One of the best football teams ever produced by Highland shared the Inland Conference Crown with Lutheran West. A conference record of 6-1 and a season record of 9-1 were sufficient for the girders to retain their top rank. Because of the abundance of talent in the senior line-up, there were four team captains, Roger Chaffee, quarterback, Bob Jones and Jim Kendel, who were selected Most Valuable Backs, and Jim Ritcher, Most Valuable Lineman. Coach Ring is looking forward to upholding our fine football reputation in the suburban League in 1976.

Freshman J.V. Football

The Junior Varsity season had "a few bright spots with a couple of impressive victories." In the opinion of Coach Cutler, the team had the ability to win, but had a few bad breaks. He considered the team spirit to be excellent. Leading scorers Dutch Baker and Bill Jones contributed to the overall record of 3-2-1. Other J.V. football coaches are Mr. Vodika, Mr. Poetter, Mr. Schiele.

The highlight of the freshman football team's undefeated season was the victory over Keystone in the contest for the conference championship. Top scorers during the team's 5-0-1 season were Nat Orchard, Mike Ciammaichella, and Rick Kolar.

CROSS COUNTRY

Harriers get new coach.

Mr. Pollock was pleased with his first season as coach of the cross country team. In his opinion it is one of the hardest sports to coach since the runners' success depends completely on individual effort. That the team practiced exceptionally hard is evident in the season record. Out harriers placed second in the Inland Conference and achieved a 5-1 dual meet record. The four leading runners were Mark Kuhar, Randy Myers, Dan Willeford, and Mike Yokum.

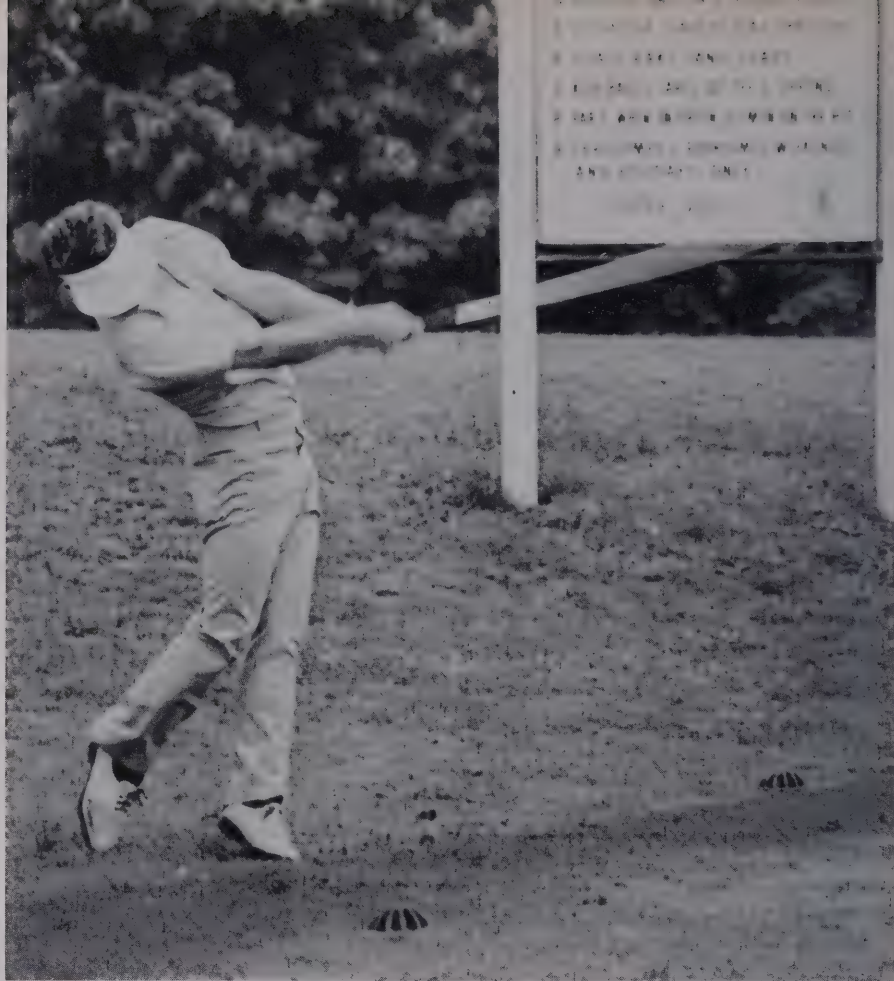

The cross country team celebrates a victory.

GOLF

Although Coach Keating was basically disappointed with the golf team's performance, they finished fourth in the conference and qualified for the Sectional and District Tournaments. In the Sectionals, which were played at Oberlin, the team placed fourth out of fourteen teams. This advanced them to the District, which was played at Oak Knolls. Many of their regular season matches were played at Sharon Country Club and practice was held at Western Reserve Golf and Country Club.

The golf team also has a junior varsity squad. Members of the group are Dave Ross, Russ Ciphers, Don Parsons, Mike Duta, and Mike Bonezzi.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Mr. Keating was pleased with the overall improvements of the boys' varsity basketball team during his fifth year of coaching at Highland. They made adjustments during the year to change their style, but this only helped to produce smarter ball players. Close games were very disappointing, but the boys maintained an excellent attitude throughout the season. Roger Chaffee was the captain of the squad and, along with Dean Tsipis, led the team in scoring.

J.V. BASKETBALL

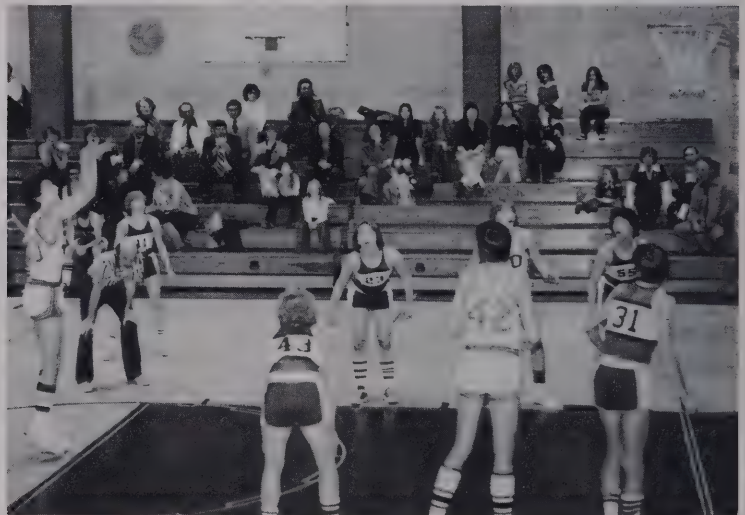

In his second year as basketball coach, Mr. Pollock was truly pleased with the team's performance. Among the stronger points of the team was the balance of talent and the ability of the players to work well together. Some of the difficulties encountered during the season were the problems with fundamentals and the minor injuries which beset the team. The most exciting game of the season was the one against Columbia when the J.V. squad beat them in overtime.

FROSH BASKETBALL

"They are an excellent group." This is the opinion of Mr. Warmbrodt, coach of the Freshman basketball team. He feels the quality of play was very good since the team continually improved as the season progressed. The team had determination and a desire to win. The only major disadvantage was the lack of experience in playing organized basketball.

VOLLEYBALL

As Miss Bouton began her first year at Highland, she was grateful for having the chance to work with the volleyball team. When asked to comment about the team, Miss Bouton said, "They made my first year great." They were fun to work with and worked well together. They helped each other, improving every game. Captain of the varsity team was Pam Brooks. J.V. Captains were Lori Lenhard and Jill Santee.

The girls and their coach enjoyed the season. They all agreed that the close games cost them the conference title. By learning new skills, they achieved an overall record of 11-5. Highlights of the season were the come-from behind victory over Columbia, and a game-scoring high of 26 points by Thelma Guinto during the Firelands game.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

"Stay with the basics and become winners." These are the words of Ken Schiele, who is now in his third year of coaching the girls' team. They are a very young team with nine freshmen basketball on the squad. They have much better fundamentals than last year, and are improving every game. The girls' effort is very good as well as their attitude. The highlights of this season were a new team scoring record of fifty points and a personal high point game by Sue Sexauer of nineteen points. Karin Dreger and Pam Brooks were voted co-captains of the varsity squad.

CHEERLEADERS

Co-captains Marlene Leveskas and Cathy Simmons agreed that this was one of the best years they had at cheerleading. The squad enjoyed Miss Bouton because she cared for them and helped them to improve. The girls loved to give skits at the pep rallies but said it was depressing when only few people cheered along with them. Marlene remarked that the fans were lively during the beginning of football season, but died down as the season progressed. According to Miss Bouton, the girls always worked hard and did a good job. She thought the squad worked well together as a team and as individuals. One of the group's outstanding characteristics was its co-operative spirit.

WRESTLING

Headed by Coach Florian the Hornet grapplers ended their dual meet season with an outstanding 7-3 record. Although they have forfeited the 185 weight class all season, they were still able to maintain a very respectable record. Coach Florian stated, "Our toughest dual meet was with Wooster and the best team effort was displayed with our meet at Wadsworth." The team came to the Revere Invitational as defending champions and was able to maintain its title by a $1\frac{1}{2}$ point margin over Norton. Coach Florian has been working with wrestlers for seven years, three of which were here at Highland. Co-captains were senior Jim Ritcher and junior Jeff May.

STUDENT COUNCIL'S 50'S DAY IS A BIG SUCCESS!

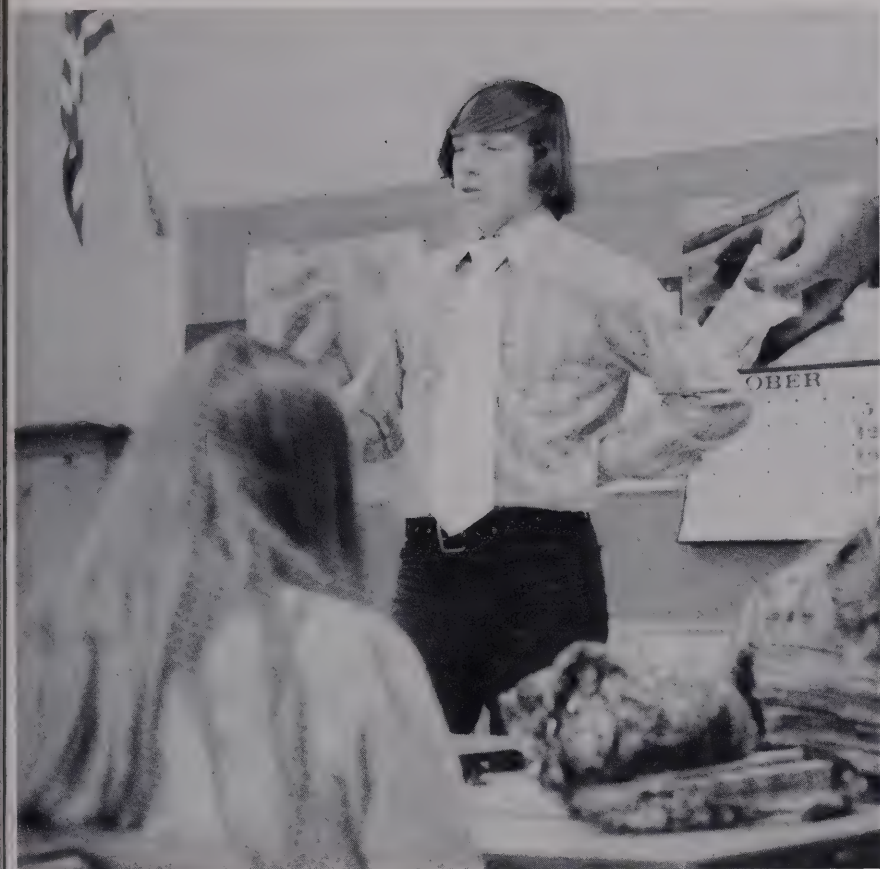

ACTIVITIES

LANGUAGE

During 1976 Highland had active Spanish, German, and Latin Clubs. The clubs had many individual activities, but joined forces for an International Foods Day.

Mrs. Clifford's German Club had a Christmas party and entertained a guest speaker from Germany.

The Spanish Club, under the direction of Miss Chiaramonte, had a very large membership. Each meeting was highlighted by skits presented by the members. One of the clubs visit to a children's home.

The Latin Club began the year with Mr. Anderson as advisor, and later worked under the direction of Mr. Latina. Highlighting their activities were a Halloween party, a bowling party, and a toboggan party. They planned to finish the year with a Roman Banquet.

Latin Club officers — Secretary Carol Broniman, Treasurer Diane Briggs, President Cindi Grever. Missing: Vice-president Karen Lipowski.

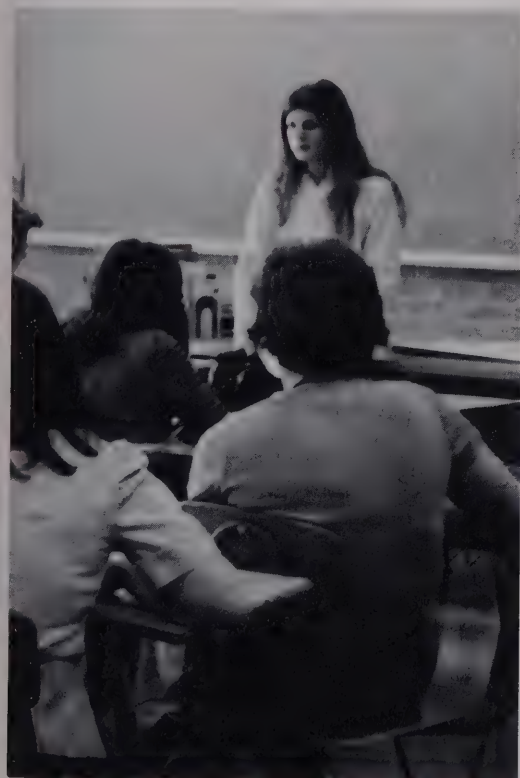

Spanish Club Officers — Treasurer Adonna Crouse, Secretary Carmel Janota, Vice-president Thelma Gunito, President Donna Kirchner, Advisor Miss Chiaramonte.

F.T.A. Officers — C. Radden, Treasurer; D. Ray, President; J. Papp, Vice-president.

F.H.H. AND F.T.A.

The Future Highland Homemakers had a very productive year. The club began with the Father-Daughter Thanksgiving Dinner in November and the Mother-Daughter Christmas Dinner. Both were a great success. Among the activities have been roller skating, a Spring Fling Dance, visiting a nursing home and the annual summer campout.

The Future Teachers of America consists of nearly thirty students who learn while teaching as they work individually with Special Education students or assist teachers in their classrooms at the Middle School. Under Mrs. Glick's supervision, the club plans two days in the spring in which members can teach at any of the Highland schools. The club sponsors a young Indian girl's education.

Drama Club Officers — R. Toth, Treasurer; A. Oxenrider, Secretary; Miss Chiaramonte, Advisor; C. Mayes, Vice-president; (missing) M. Young, President.

Mr. Sigris discusses N.H.S. plans with Pam Brooks, and Clint Ensworth.

DRAMA CLUB, N.H.S.

Drama Club members and officers organized a one-act play, "The Book of Spells", for the Hinkley and Sharon Elementary Schools. Under Miss Chiaramonte's direction the members auditioned for the roles of the play which was performed on December 8th, 9th and 10th.

The qualities of the forty members in National Honor Society include leadership, character, scholarship and service. The students must have maintained at least a 3.0 average to be eligible for the club. They are selected by the teachers, inducted in a formal ceremony in the spring and advised by Mr. Sigris.

Ski Club

VARSITY H, SKI CLUB

Each member of the Varsity H Club must have been a participant on a varsity team and have earned a letter. Under the direction of Mr. Ring, the club sponsors activities such as its annual Spring Picnic.

The 72 members of the Ski Club spent many happy hours on the slopes at Boston Mills. The first hour of skiing includes instruction followed by two hours of fun with friends or independent skiing. The last of the six Monday night sessions was given free of charge. On the final day of skiing the club organized a pizza party to end the enjoyable evening.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Leadership has been important this year in making Student Council a success. Jo Anne Duncan, president, and the other officers have been assisted by Mr. Brenner, the advisor in planning student activities such as the Christmas dance, the Fifties Dance, several one-act plays, an EFFE Day, and a Spring Fling with Revere. Among the other highlights have been the Student Council — Faculty dinner, student exchange, the collection of computer lines to aid a family in purchasing a kidney machine, and a Thanksgiving Day Food Drive. The selling of social security cards and pennants have been the main money-raising projects. The colorful student council bulletin board kept the student body informed on school activities and local events.

Student Council members all dressed up in "Early Attic" clothes for Fifties Day.

Student Council — Front Row: T. Scheid, P. Barnes, T. Cavanaugh, C. Simpson, B. Adams, R. Toth, T. Winters, J. Cox. Second Row: R. Finley, P. Moon, M. Kirchner, J. Pivato, C. Berry, B. Burnside. Guidance Workers — Front Row: L. Lenhard, J. Moss, S. Foy, K. Pocha. Second Row: T. Barndt, C. Yehnert, L. Blynn, C. McAfee, F. Moore, L. Moss. Back Row: C. Piller, J. Cox, M. Keating, C. Steele, K. Ransom, C. Koger.

STUDENT AIDES

The office and guidance aides devote much of their time to important errands and odd jobs done for the secretaries and counselors. Their help has made things a little bit easier for the office staff. They learned much about the operation of an office from their experience as aides.

Among the duties of library aides are shelving books, straightening shelves and magazine collections, and helping Miss Buck with the maintenance of the library. The audiovisual staff is responsible for the inventory of equipment which is loaned to the teachers for classroom use.

Mr. Cranston's aides assist the athletic department by running errands and doing clerical work in the athletic office.

Cafeteria aides help to keep tables clean, sell ice cream and milk and wash dishes.

HIGHLANDER

In the Fall of 1975 the Highlander staff, with specially picked seniors and juniors gathered ads to help pay for publications costs. During the winter months, everyone was kept busy taking pictures, writing copy, drawing layouts and cropping pictures. The Highlander was broken down into sections, with a group of students, headed by a group leader, working on each section. Editor Chris Grever and Assistant Editor Jenni Papp supervised all the sections. Our advisor, was Mrs. Clifford.

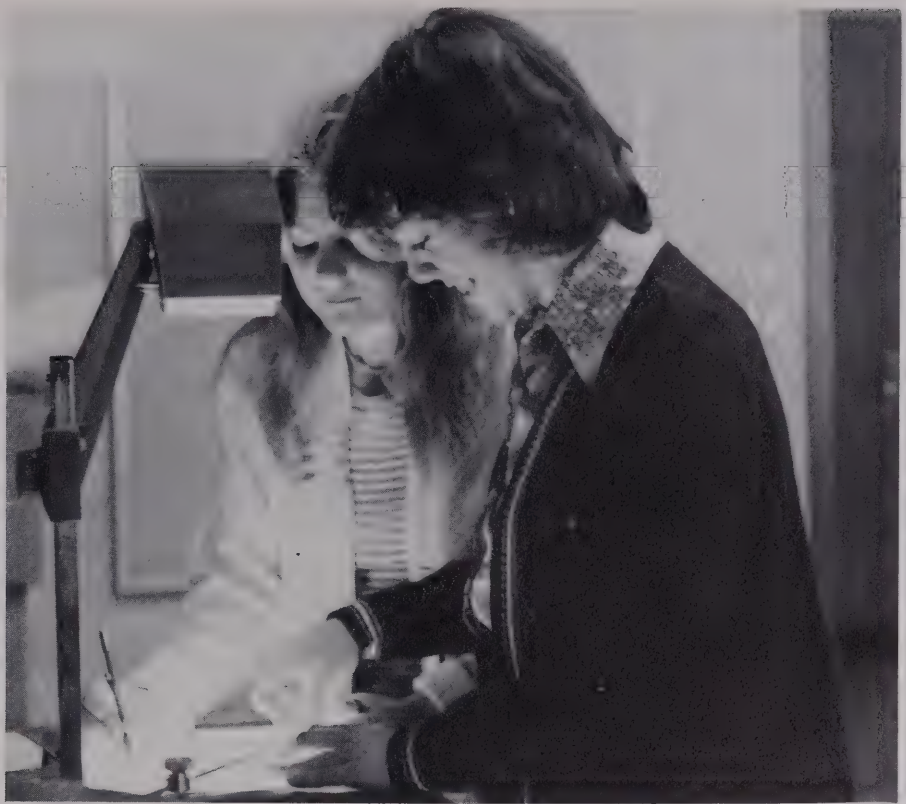

Debbie Ray and Jenny Kramer work on a rough layout.

A Capella Choir

CHOIRS

The A Capella and Symphonic Choirs present many enjoyable concerts under the direction of Mr. Ruddock. The Christmas concert featured selections such as "Card of the Bells" and "Christmas Song", whereas the Sacred Concert offered numbers such as "Godspell" and "Deep River". In May the band and choir combined their talents in the annual spring concert. The 51 advanced members of the A Capella Choir were guests at an Inland Choir Concert held at Oberlin College. The choir members also compete in a solo and ensemble contest at Wadsworth High School.

Debbie Meyers and Brad Summers for a performance.

The A Capella Choir takes a mid-practice break.

Symphonic Choir

Nancy Robertson concentrates on office work.

Otto Hazen, Bill Jagger, Tim Queer, and Phil Nawalaniec survey the land in Environmental Science.

Ken Spellacy and Jeff Swaddell cook hamburgers in Culinary Arts.

Kim Underwood and Jody Vaszily prepare patterns in Fashion Design.

David Chism and Brian Cornman learn to design in Industrial Drafting.

Darrell Dearth and Richard Feightner inspect plants in Horticulture.

MCJVS

The Joint Vocational School has 1,010 students from the schools in Medina County including Black River, Brunswick, Buckeye, Cloverleaf, Medina, and Highland. The 161 juniors and seniors attending the JVS from Highland are still considered a part of our student body. The students are sometimes transported to Highland for special assemblies and pep rallies. Mrs. Dzur, a JVS counselor, feels that communications between the JVS and Highland have improved this year.

The JVS has become increasingly involved with organizing activities. The school sponsors weekend dinners and car washes, gives fashion shows, and operates a restaurant called "The Four Seasons" as well as a store run by students in the Distributive Education class. This year several dances have been planned, including a prom in May.

The JVS is capable of offering students employment opportunities upon graduation, or students can further their education at college or trade school. Students have filled jobs as secretaries, hospital aides and cosmetologists. Many students from Carpentry and Electronics complete large tasks such as building a house.

From the available career training courses, some of the most popular programs include: Cosmetology, Child Care, Diversified Health Occupations, Fabric Services, Hi-speed Steno, Auto Mechanics, Commercial Art, Communications Electronics, Graphic Communications, Horticulture, Farm Management, and Machine Trades.

Holly Butler corrects office material in Business and Office Skills.

Mary Fox shows her skill at sewing in Fashion Design.

Chris Miller and Chris Pilko are assisted by their teacher in High-speed Steno class.

Kevin Anderson, Dan Bridle and Gerald Gerspacher work with C-Clamps in Carpentry.

Annette Dulude, Julie John, and Caroline Fichter practice hairstyling in Cosmetology.

Vickie Sammons demonstrates dental hygiene with Stacy Seymour.

Marilyn Cartwright and Cindy Strassburg make cookies for a Health Care party.

Lynn Buck and Ruth Cizmadia watch as Jody Bear types in Business Skills.

Cindy Gregoire gets organized to begin typing.

Diane Simmons presents a story game to children in Child Care.

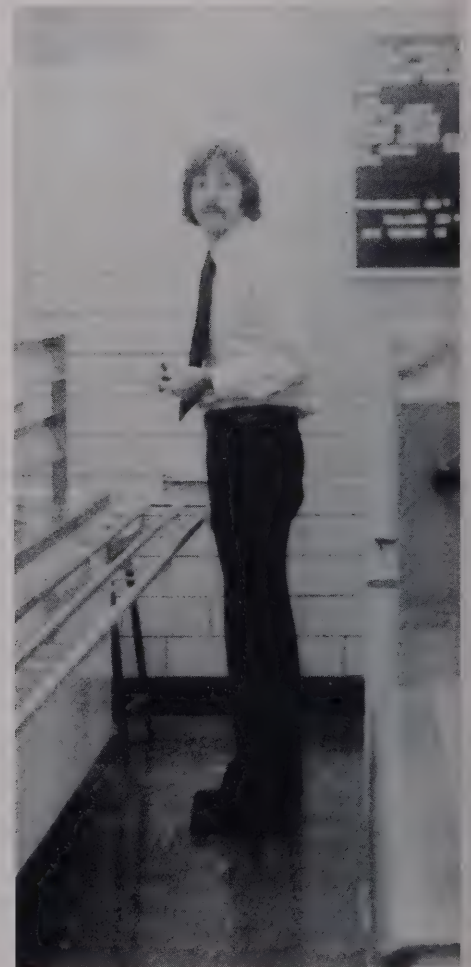

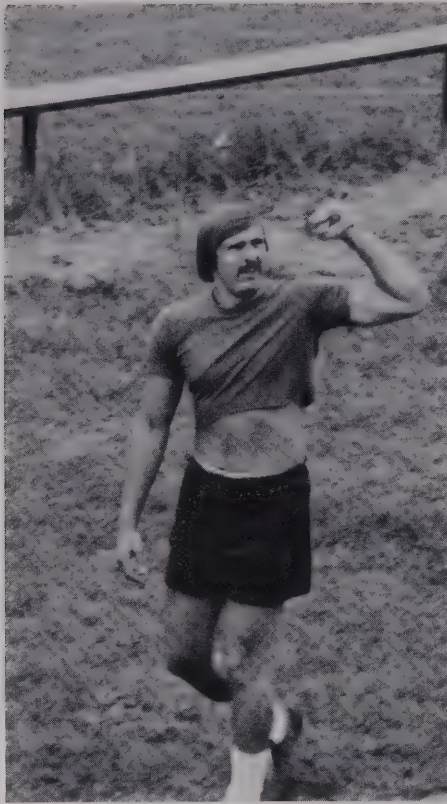

Kim Underwood looks on as Susan Peet is assisted by her teacher.

Virginia Pritt rolls cookie dough into various shapes.

Carrie Jones prepares a dental tray in Diversified Health Occupations.

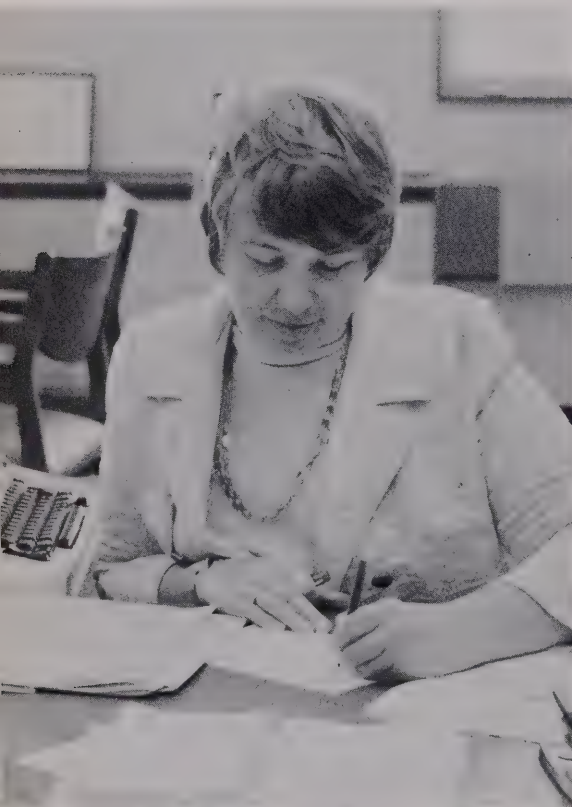

FACULTY

Superintendent Alfred R. Cowger

Mr. Cowger's secretary is Sheryl Stull.

1975 School Board — Seated: Mrs. Wise and Mrs. Becks. Standing: Mr. Miller, Dr. Loomis, and Mr. Schmelzer

Mr. Cowger addresses the teachers at the orientation meeting.

1976 School Board — Seated: Mrs. Wise and Mr. Ulrich. Standing: Mr. Drake, Mr. Miller, and Mr. Loomis.

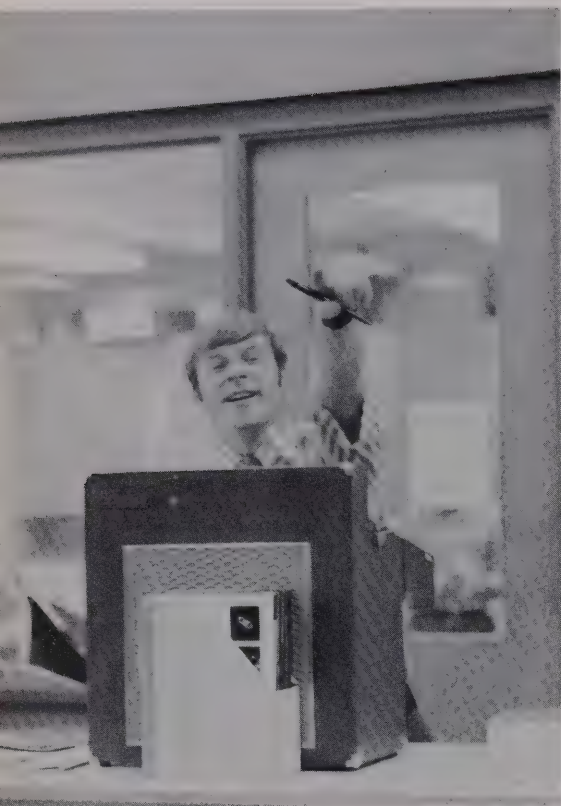

Assistant Superintendent Art C. Clevidence

ADMINISTRATION

The Board of Education and Mr. Cowger must collaborate for the successful management of the public school system. The Board plans, adopts, and revises policies for the efficient running of the school. Mr. Cowger's job is to see that these functions are carried out. His secretary, Miss Stull, assists him in many of these areas.

Mr. Clevidence, though rarely seen at the High School, is busy at work in the Middle School. His responsibilities include coordination of the transportation of students and maintenance of the grounds and buildings.

Mr. Florian stresses a point: GET OUT!

Miss Dybiec helps new students adjust to Highland.

ADMINISTRATION

The school administration has served as a guide for students at H.H.S. Mr. Stone is seen frequently walking through study halls and going through the cafeteria at lunch. He feels that it is important to have a good relationship with the students.

Mr. Brenner handles disciplinary matters and is in charge of the building in Mr. Stone's absence. He also works with students who are absent from school frequently.

The office secretaries, Mrs. Winter and Mrs. Kaufman, are always busy with school records, receiving money for fees and selling workbooks.

Keeping the school's finances under control are Mrs. Brunskill, Clerk, and Mrs. Webster, her assistant.

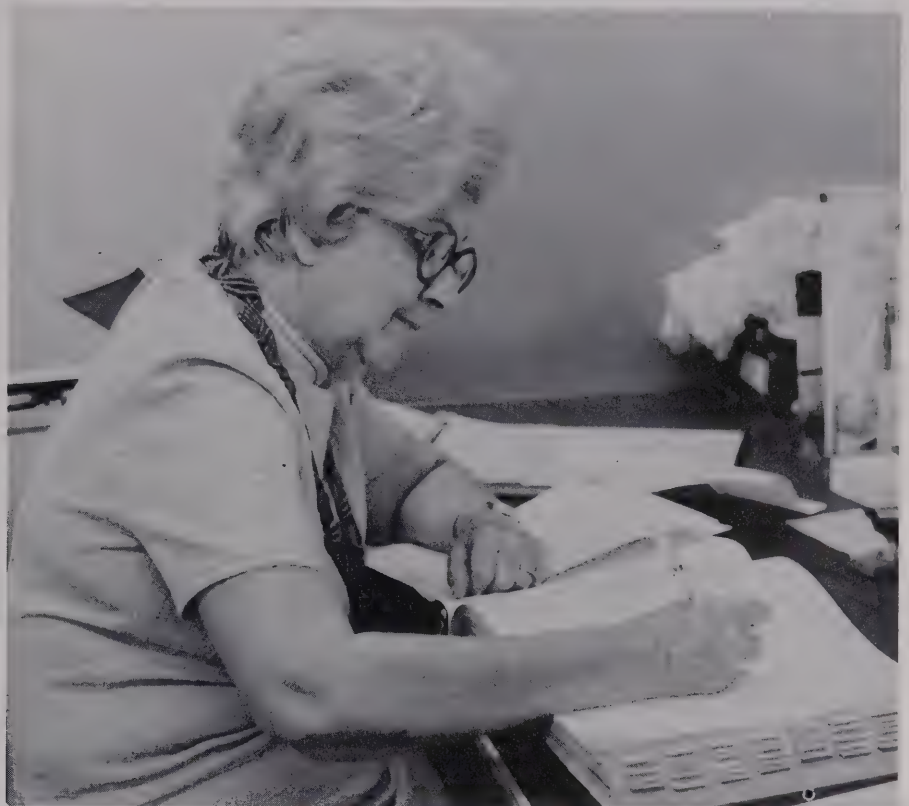

The counselors help the seniors decide what to do after high school, administer the scheduling of classes, run all testing programs, and talk with students about both school and home life problems.

Mr. James Stone, Principal

Mrs. Brunskill is kept busy trying to balance our budget.

Keeping our books in order is Mrs. Webster.

Mrs. Winter and Mrs. Kaufman keep the main office running smoothly.

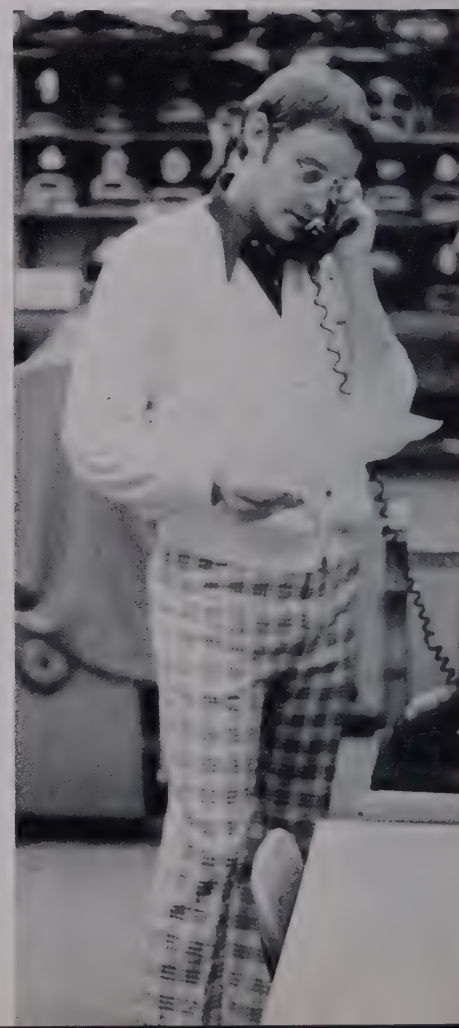

Mr. Thomas Brenner, Ass. Principal.

English Teachers: Mrs. Bender, Mrs. Heath, Mrs. Glick, Mrs. Hege, and Mr. Keating (bottom right).

Members of the English Department get together before the school year begins.

ENGLISH

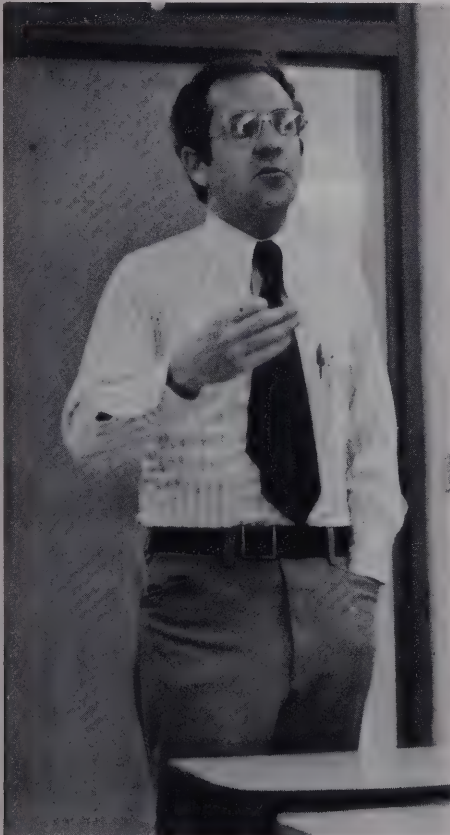

English has become a more interesting subject with the greater variety of mini-courses offered. Required English courses for Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors have been divided into separate literature and grammar courses.

Conversational German and Conversational Spanish have been added to the curriculum for students who want to learn some basic words and phrases in these languages. German IV has also been added. Trips for Spanish and German students are being planned for next semester.

Miss Buck, the librarian, and Mrs. Bohai, the assistant, are keeping the Media Center in good condition for students and faculty. Students had an opportunity again this year to buy books in the annual Book Fair.

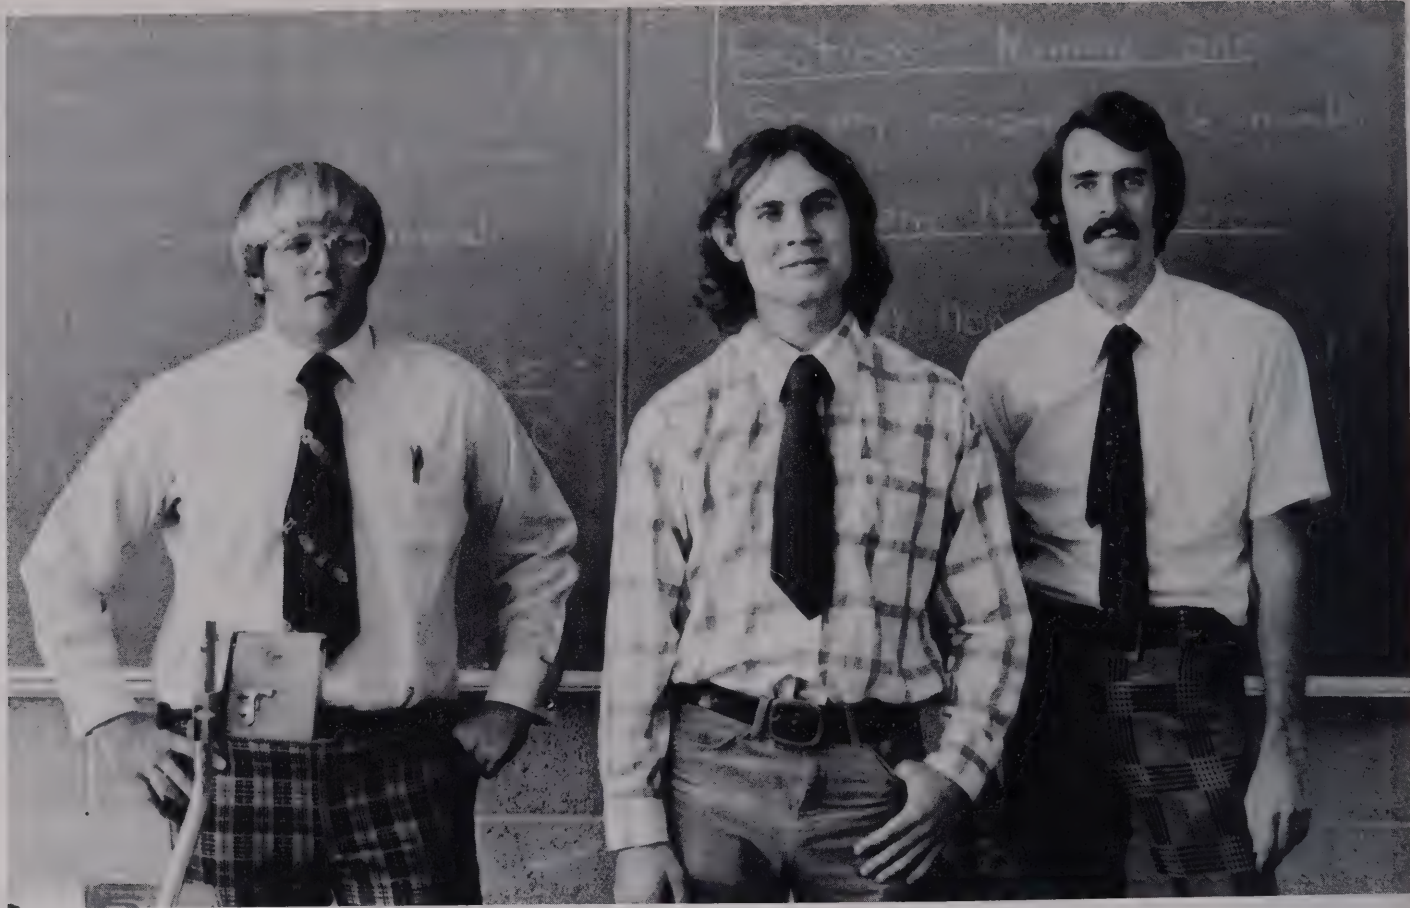

Librarian Miss Buck and assistant Mrs. Bohai check in new books.

Pastor Kehnle was one of many guest speakers in Perspectives on Death.

Spanish Teacher Miss Chiaramonte, Latin Teacher, Mr. Anderson, and German Teacher, Mrs. Clifford.

Math teachers are Mr. Ring, Mr. Warmbrodt, and Mr. Pollock.

Mr. Temple supervises students lab work.

Mr. Vodika taught Biology this year as well as Gym.

MATH, SCIENCE

Peculiar odors, experimenting and equations are par for the course in Chemistry. Students receive the essential training in this area in classes conducted by Mr. Temple. Dissection, demonstrations and measurements help make up Science and Biology. Mr. Vodika is just beginning in this area, whereas Miss Friedstrom has been working here for some time. Physics is a science dealing with matter and energy. Students have theory three times a week and lab twice a week.

New to the Math Department is Mr. Warmbrodt, who instructs Algebra I and General Math. One of the many courses Mr. Ring teaches is Academic Algebra, which is a new subject. Mr. Pollock teaches Algebra II, Geometry, and Living Math.

Miss Friedstrom and Mr. Hostak watch Mr. Temple demonstrate a chemical reaction.

HISTORY, EMR

Students can now choose aspects of history that interest them and advance in them through mini-courses. Government classes are dealing with national, state and local problems. Class discussions of current events are frequent.

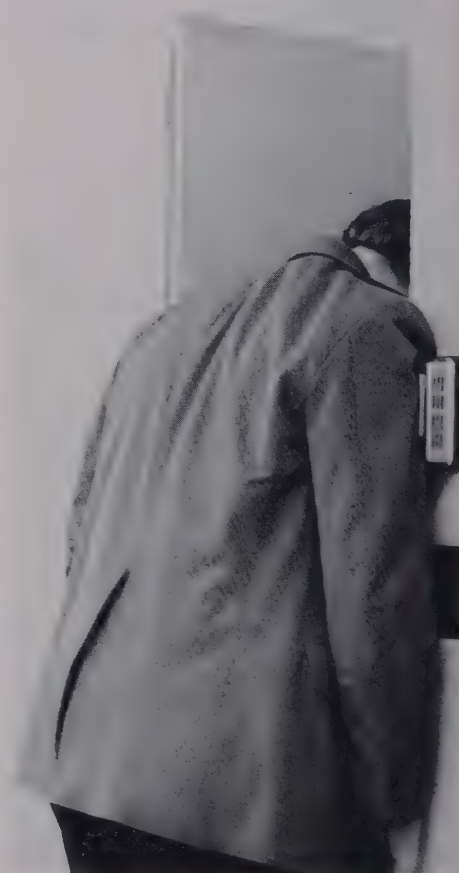

Driver's Education is offered to all students in the form of a nine-week mini-course. In the classroom the students learn the fundamentals of driving and the laws governing the roads. Road classes are taken after school, and are required for all students.

Mr. Campbell leads a discussion of the policies of our government.

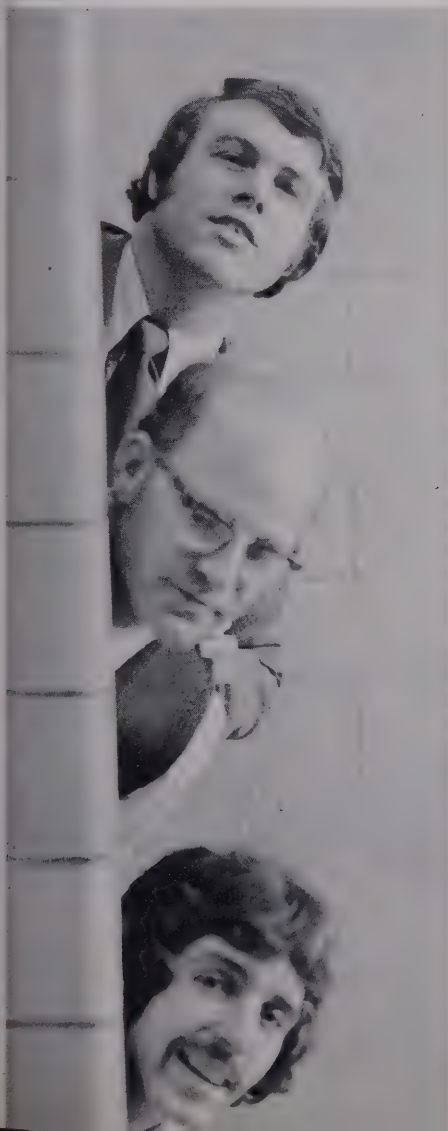

Government teachers are Mr. Sigrist, and Mr. Campbell.

Mr. Stone conducts the first teachers' meeting of the school year.

Mrs. Thomas, EMR teacher.

VOCATIONAL

Thanks to the Business Department, students can now learn how to better manage their money, keep books, invest in the stock exchange, and how to figure the cost of building and furnishing a home. Students taking typing and shorthand concentrate on improving speed and accuracy in classroom drills. Office Practice students put their training to use to prepare themselves for the office atmosphere and variety of assignments they are likely to face after graduation.

At various times during the day students are seen walking to and from the Middle School. Mrs. Cole teaches Home Economics at the Middle School and Mrs. Tramonte teaches at the High School. Industrial Arts is also split between the two buildings, with Mr. Frontroth at the Middle School and Mr. Harmon at the High School.

Home Economics teachers are Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Tramonte.

Mr. Frontroth teaches at the Middle School.

Mr. Harmon assists students with their projects.

The Business Department consists of Mrs. Roser, Mr. Rinker and Mrs. Campbell.

Mrs. Tramonte is perfectly at home in the cooking lab.

Mrs. Campbell spends much time reading letters and projects typed by the students.

Music Department: Mr. Puehler and Mr. Ruddock

Mr. Puehler leads the band during practice.

Mrs. Melrose, Art teacher

Mrs. Skrocki, the teacher's aide, comes every Wednesday.

Physical Education teachers are Miss Bouton, Mr. Poetter and Mr. Vodika.

Some students supplement their phys. ed. classes with extra-curricular sports, such as basketball.

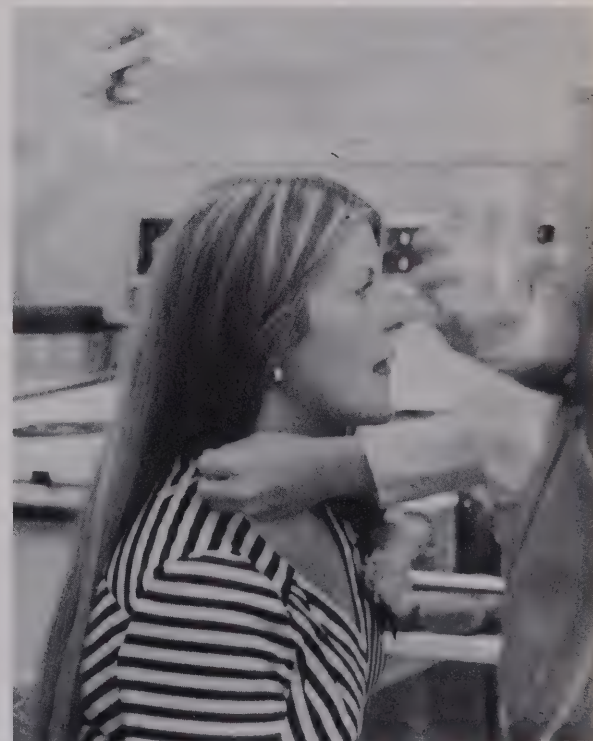

ARTS, PHYS. ED.

The Highland Band performs under the direction of Mr. Puehler, who organizes football half-time shows, concert appearances, and money-making projects for new uniforms. In the Spring the band will travel to Disneyworld in Florida.

Both the Symphonic and ACappella Choirs are conducted by Mr. Ruddock. Under Mr. Ruddock's guidance the choirs present several programs throughout the school year.

Miss Bouton, the new girls' physical education and health teacher, has been teaching girls' volleyball, modern dance and a "new" form of dodge ball. Mr. Vodika and Mr. Poetter, boys' gym teachers, keep their students physically fit through calisthenics and team sports.

Mrs. Melrose has arranged many mini-courses such as silversmithing, cartooning and stained glass. These classes offer a wide variety of areas from which students can choose. On Wednesdays, Mrs. Skrocki is also available to help the students with their projects.

Miss Bouton's Volleyball team helped to celebrate her birthday.

Custodians chat as they work.

Student drivers alleviate the problem of crowded busses.

CUSTODIANS, COOKS, AND BUS DRIVERS

Highland cooks are busy preparing nutritious student lunches. Mrs. Plummer, the supervisor, has the important task of planning the menu for all four schools in the district. Mrs. Juris is the head cook, a job which encompasses many duties. Mrs. Matthew's responsibility is salads and sandwiches, while Mrs. St. Clair collects the money at the end of the lunch line.

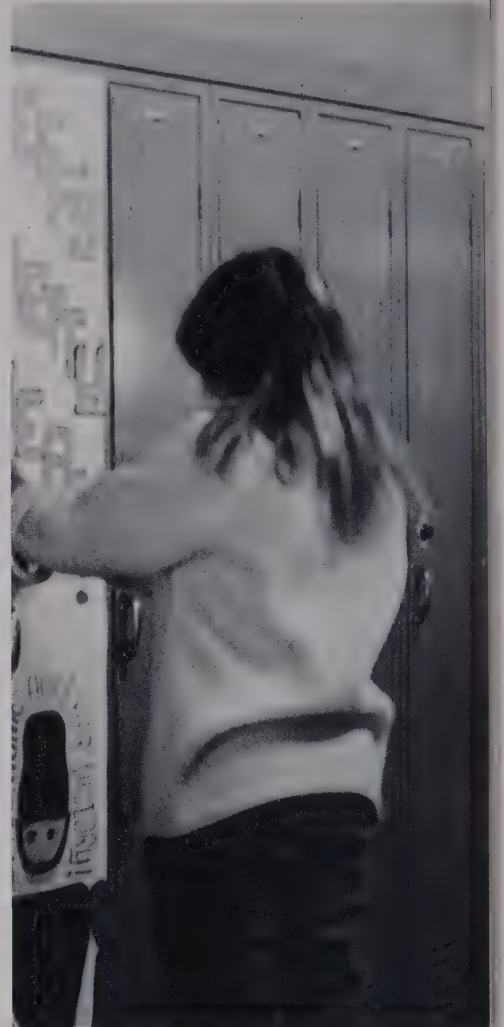

The Highland bus drivers have the responsibility of transporting our students to and from school safely. This requires working some odd hours and driving in sometimes hazardous weather conditions.

Mr. Louk, Mr. Swain, Mr. Vanslow, Mr. Shook, Mr. Steel, and Mr. Wheeler, our six dependable custodians, are responsible for opening the school doors in the morning, doing minor repair work and cleaning the school.

Mrs. Juris, Mrs. Plummer, Mrs. St. Clair and Mrs. Matthews are our cooks.

Our custodians are Mr. Shook, Mr. Steel and Mr. Swain.

Writing, I crushed an insect with my nail
And thought nothing at all. A bit of wing
Caught my eye then, a gossamer so frail

And exquisite, I saw in it a thing
That scorned the grossness of the thing
It hung upon my finger like a sting. I wrote.

A leg I noticed next, fine as a mote,
"And on this frail eyelash he walked," I
"And climbed and walked like a mountain — said, goat."

And in this mood I sought the little head,
But it was lost; then in my heart a fear
Cried out, "A life — why beautiful, why dead!"

It was a mite that held itself most dear,
So small I could have drowned it with a tear.

As our Bicentennial School Year ends, the high school days also end for our senior class. Some say they are to be the best of our lives — we'll just have to wait and see. They've been memorable years — years filled with fun and friends, years of good times and bad, laughter and sorrow, accomplishments and failures, praise and ridicule, love and hate. Now as we go our separate ways we will want to recall some of these moments. For this reason the '76 Highlander staff has produced these Bicentennial pages. I have attempted to achieve one goal, and that is as you leaf through these pages, that you may remember the face of a friend, a moment you shared, a special event, that it may bring these things just a bit closer, that it may cause you to laugh or cry, but that it may cause you- - - - -to remember.

Germany

The above students and their advisor, Mrs. Clifford, left for Germany over the eight day Spring Break. They toured Southern Germany, Austria, and Switzerland, by bus seeing such highlights as: Munich, Salzburg, and Zurich. All the students felt that the experience was beneficial and it was obvious when they returned that their knowledge of the German language had improved.

New members of NHS are Jenny Kramer, Sue Pfister, Niki Dillworth, Shirley Lang, Cheryl Paytosh, Kevin Sturm, Mark Snyder, Dan Willeford, Jon Dick, Cathy Simmons, Karen Pocta, Becky MacDowell, Sioux Snyder, Clare Briggs, Laura Goldbach, JoAnne Duncan, Autumn VanDeusen, Mark Schodowski, Sue Spradlin, Lucy Gaj, and Joyce Lathrop.

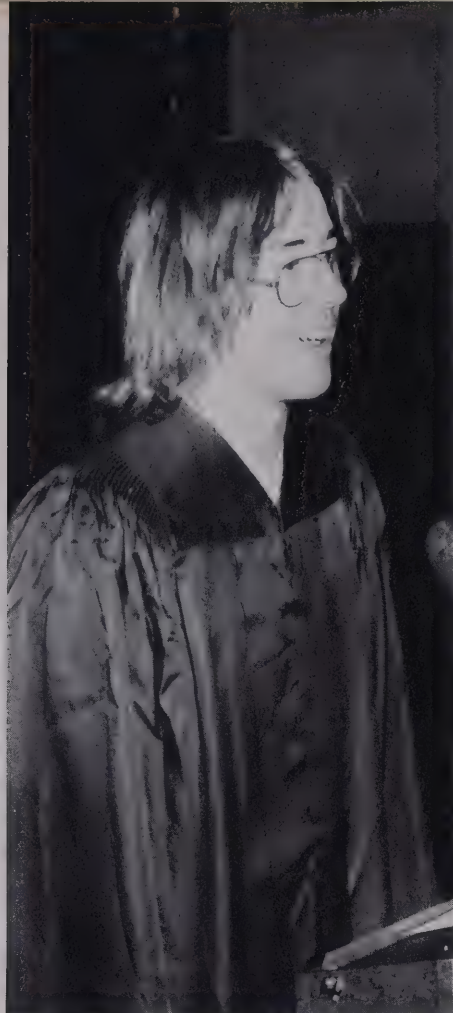

NHS—Academic Challenge

The new inductees of N.H.S. were chosen on the basis of their leadership, character, scholarship and service. Terri Barndt, Thelma Guinto, Merry Young, and Peter Wilcox spoke about each quality to the new members before they were presented with membership cards and pins by Mr. Sigrist. Roger Chaffee was the master of ceremonies. Following the ceremony was a reception in the Home Ec. Room for inductees and their parents.

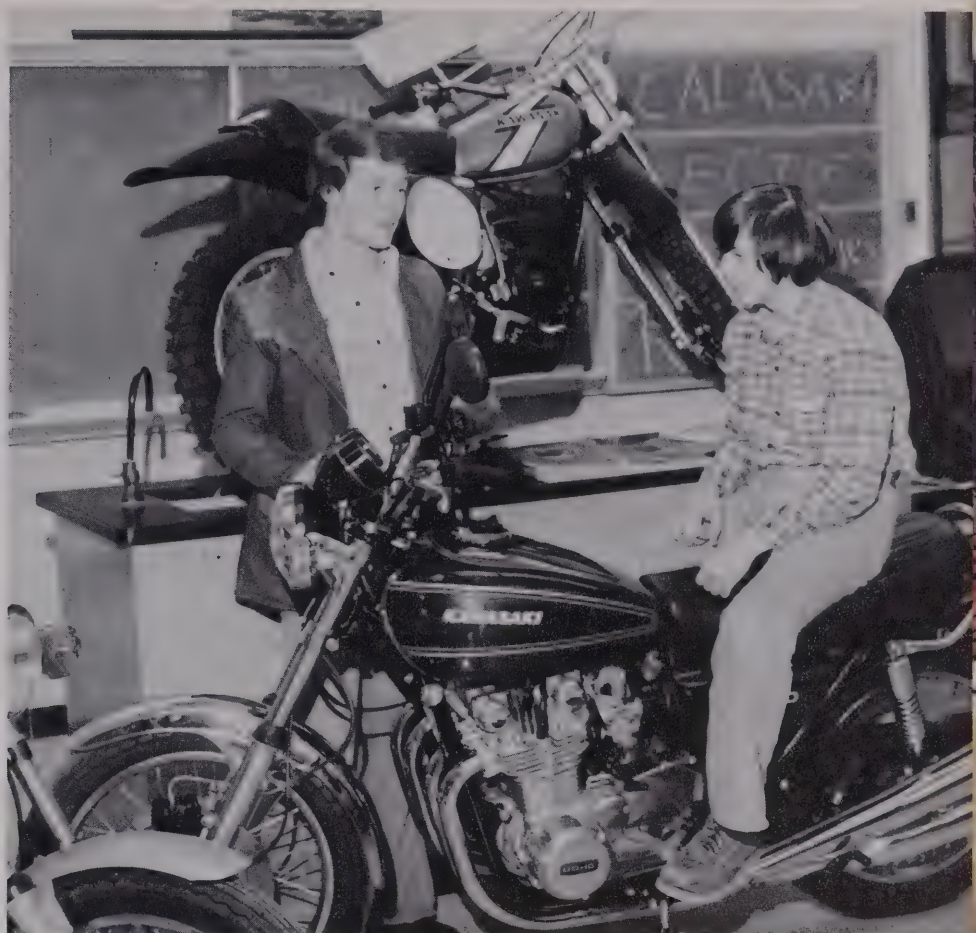

Highland was represented by Diane Briggs, Clare Briggs, and Merry Young, alternate Dean Tsipis, and advisor Ms. Buck, in the Academic Challenge show aired May 1st. The close-fought battle showed Highland winning with 370 points over Regina with 360, and Lakeview with 290.

EFFE

Decorate a cake, learn how to Waltz, take a walk outside, see a movie, have your dreams interpreted, or even see a magic show. These are only a few possibilities taken advantage of by teachers as well as students on EFFE day.

EFFE stands for Experience in Free Form Education. It gives students and teachers an opportunity to learn the basics in many subject areas. It was made possible by the hard work of Student Council. A special thanks goes to Jennifer Cox, JoAnne Duncan and Ray Berry.

Girls' Track

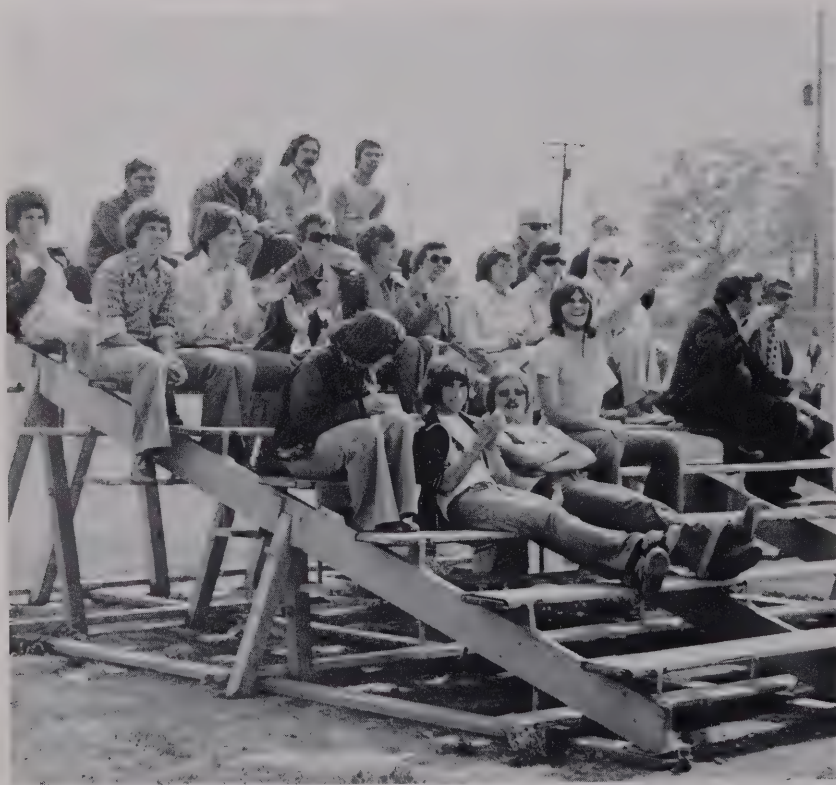

Jumping, leaping, and running were just a few of the stunts which the girls' track team practiced. There were eight meets and the girls progressed with every meet. All the meets were away because of limited facilities. Under this handicap, although, the girls conquered an opposing team. This was a momentous occasion because it was the first victory in the two year history of girls' track. Also, this was the first time the team ever participated in sectionals and districts. It was an exceptional season and the team is still hopeful for state.

Coach Poetter watches the action intently.

Roger completes his swing.

And the fans go wild!!!

Ted scores!

South Pacific

Under the direction of Mrs. Bender and Mr. Ruddock, Highland's second musical, South Pacific, was a success. The musical's setting was in 1944 during the war in the South Pacific. The cast was complete with sailors, marines, island girls, seabees, and nurses. The Rogers and Hammerstein music offered wellknown songs such as "Nothing Like A Dame", "Bali Hai", and "Some Enchanted Evening". The script involved a love affair between Nellie, a nurse and Emile DeBecque, as well as Lt. Cable and Liat, an island girl. Luther Billis, Stewpot and the other sailors performed amusing antics, while Bloody Mary cheated them of their money. Special commendation is given to the band, stagecrew, publicity and various other student committees for their time and effort in making the musical a hit.

Spring Fling

Highland's first Spring Fling was held between Highland and Revere High Schools the first week of May. It was sponsored and managed by Student Council. The purpose of the Spring Fling was to let the students of the two schools get acquainted since we will be in the same athletic conference next year. On the first night the Jr. Olympics were held at Highland. The following nights' activities were held at Revere. Fun was the name of the game as team battled team in various games that tried many talents. Teachers were dunked, oranges passed, pizzas eaten and races run. The week of hilarity and excitement ended with a big dance at Revere with music provided by "Bach".

Bob Jones and Dwier Brown combine their efforts to push Bill Moore across the finish line.

Mark Snyder, Mark Schodowski, and David Beal, share a good time at Spring Fling.

Michelle Keating puts forth her best.

Ted Parker and JoAnne Duncan pass the orange.

Jim Kelly, JoAnne Duncan, and Tom Sexauer hop to victory.

State Wrestling

Four Hornet grapplers wrestled their way to the State Tournament in Columbus. They were: state veteran, junior Jeff May 119, senior Terry Wilcox 145, senior Jim Kendel 175, and senior Jim Ritcher Hwt. Ritcher made a fine showing by receiving second place. Although May, Wilcox, and Kendel didn't place, the points they earned helped the team place fifteenth in the state. Since this was Kendel's first season wrestling, he performed quite well in qualifying for state competition. Other Hornets who qualified for the District Tournament were T. Sours 98, T. Winter 105, J. Cavanaugh 126, D. Willeford 132, and M. Houska 138.

Hwt. Jim Ritcher tries to keep his opponent from Marysville down in the semifinals.

Jim and Jeff Sanicky tangle in the finals.

Coach Florian congratulates Jim on a fine semi-final victory.

Mr. Vodika guards his Cloverleaf opponent.

Mr. Warmbrodt dribbles through an opening in the Colt's defense.

Faculty Basketball

The Highland faculty members combined their basketball talents to raise money for Varsity H.

The team challenged other faculty teams in the county and the North Royalton faculty. The Highland team, led by high scoring Mr. Pollock, finished the tournament in second place. Tournament champions were the teachers from Brunswick.

Mr. Cutler wonders what's next.

Gymnastic Show

The second annual Highland Gymnastic Show was spectacular. Highland High School and Middle School students worked hard for two months to make this event a success. The directors, Miss Bouton and Mrs. Murphy, did an excellent job in setting up the show.

Students from the high school who participated were: Mary Ann Burns, Chris Willard, Pam Sturm, Wendy Wasser, Jeff Crabtree, Terri Wilcox, Patti Sullivan, Robin Finley, Monica Helm, Sue Smouse, Jennifer Cox, Laurie Ritcher, Alice Bialek, Sheila Barnes, Laurie Ranallo, Lori Ciammaichella, Diane Brantner, and Mary Jean Simpson. Randy Rakoci, Joe Purta, and Brad Brown, provided the sound and light effects.

Terri Wilcox completes a flip.

Monica Helm and Chris Willard perform on the Balance Beam.

Balloons are passed out at intermission.

Pam Sturm balances on the beam.

Alice Bialek completes an arial.

Prom 1976

Prom was different this year because it was held in the Gaslight Room in the old Norton Brown Derby instead of in the gym. The banquet and dance were both on the same night. Underclassmen were allowed to attend the banquet for the first time. Music was supplied by the "Night Lighters". Activities were held the next night at Berea Bowling and Skating. Prom 1976 was a success, thanks to the hard work of the juniors and the participation of everyone.

Mark Kuhar and Marisa Wade watch as others dance.

Tim Winter and Laurie Ranallo present corsages to Mrs. Heath and Mrs. Campbell.

Couples dance to the music of the "Night Lighters".

Senior Prophecy is read by juniors at the banquet.

Commencement

The class of 1976 held its Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises at the Highland Football stadium. It was the first time that the exercises were held outside. Rev. Perry Beaumont spoke to the 206 graduates on their value as individuals. The seniors graduated in bicentennial colors and received their diplomas from Mr. Cowger, Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. Miller, President of the Board of Education. Debbie Hagan, class valedictorian, and Joyce Lathrop, salutatorian received awards before the assembled class. The class marched to the accompaniment of "Fanfare and Recessional" played by the High School Band.

Rev. Perry Beaumont, keynote speaker, addressed the class and their guests.

Valedictorian Deb Hagan speaks to her classmates.
